

This is a representation of how the image move from one status to the next.

- Add location from zero to more than one.

Tasks in Glance can be in one of the following statuses:

- pending
The task identifier has been reserved for a task in the Glance. No processing has begun on it yet.
- processing
The task has been picked up by the underlying executor and is being run using the backend Glance execution logic for that task type.
- success
Denotes that the task has had a successful run within Glance. The result field of the task shows more details about the outcome.
- failure
Denotes that an error occurred during the execution of the task and it cannot continue processing. The message field of the task shows what the error was.
